

To be part of a great sporting team, we all need a bit of motivation to help us contribute to the team we are a part of whether that be as a player, coach, trainer, volunteer or even as a spectator!

The Australian Sports Commission's website www.ausport.gov.au has some great information about motivating you & your team. They even provide fact sheets on topics such as "Coaching Juniors" and "How to motivate young people".

For more information to enhance the motivation of your team visit the "Developing Sport" section of the website where you can download information relating to juniors, indigenous, women in sport, ethics, innovation and best practice issues.

A big CONGRATULATIONS to Jodie Hamilton and Russell Reid on the birth of their little boy Oscar Reid born on Thursday 3rd May at approx 2.30pm, weighing 6 pounds & 8 ounces - apparently born with hockey stick in hand!

Wishing you the best this week on the turf, oval, fields, courts, tables and floors!

If you would like to report on your sport, contact Greg or Nicole from the "What's on @ Ravendale editorial team, today!

Sporting Notes from Nyngan - Hunting

After completing the 20/15/10metre 'Ignition Sprint' and stealing the keys from the trespassers vehicle you MUST whip out the permanent texta, race around to the back of the car with torch in hand and write down the registration plate details as quickly as possible. This can be quite tricky when its freezing cold and your fingers won't work. Write it on your skin as if the trespassing pig hunters get a little grumpy and catch up with you during your 10/15/20metre sprint back to your own car - they could steal notes of paper from you! Prior to the sprint back to the car, engage in a game of 'Memory' taking mental note of how many dogs are on board, if they have the required collars and tracking devices and of course how many morons there are in the car (Maybe this should have been called "Moron Spotting" instead.) Do not try to employ a standard critical conversation with them. They are morons and don't understand plain English. You may suddenly feel like your playing Monopoly if/when they offer to 'buy you out'. Hunting Pig Hunters is therefore not one of my favourite sports. Especially when a few days later one of the pieces of equipment in your front yard happens to have eight flat tyres!

Lost something sport?

Lost Balls - Stop Press: Located!

Now here's a story that would make anyone concerned.... John Bisset, a very well known dedicated and loyal member of the Panthers Hockey Club has lost his balls. Now believe it or not, many of you may well have seen them!

Usually carried in a shopping bag and all marked perfectly with the letter 'P' for Panthers, John has been making them available to people attending hockey training for years (not that all of them are that old).

Without the balls, training is no where near as exciting as it has proved to be in the past.

If you've seen any balls that match this description, please call John asap via 'On the Spot' 0428 830 264. Thank you for the picture John!*
